

“Buckets of Hope” for 2018 Hurricane Victims

With the support of Bishop Olmsted, the Office of the Diaconate has developed a program called “Buckets of Hope”. This effort is to provide 5 gal. buckets filled with cleaning supplies to the victims of Hurricane Florence. When disasters strike, money pours in to help first responders serve the victims. But for those who have begun to return to their shattered homes to repair and/or rebuild, life will never be the same. It is to these that we offer a ray of hope.

Parishes are asked to collect the items during the month of October and have their Buckets of Hope ready for pick up before October 31. For those unable to shop, checks made payable to the Diocese of Phoenix (“Buckets of Hope” in memo line) will help defray cost of shipping and additional product to make sure all 500 Buckets of Hope are filled. We thank you for your assistance to those in need.
